Newsletter Sunday 1st November 2026

Reflection:

The Feast of All Saints celebrated on 1st November is a day of immense joy, hope, and light. It is a celebration not just of the famous, canonised saints whose names adorn our churches, but of the "small saints", the uncanonised, ordinary men, women, and children who quietly lived lives of profound love, integrity, and faith. This day reminds us that holiness is a universal call and that heaven is populated by an uncountable multitude of people who once walked exactly where we walk.

Sainthood is a vocation for everyone, not a privilege for a select few. No saint was born perfect; they were as human as we are and faced deep personal struggles and by the grace of God overcame them and attained to great holiness.
