

Reflection

On Friday 22nd February, almost a year after the invasion of Ukraine and "the beginning of this absurd and cruel war," the Pope at the General Audience dwelt on this "sad anniversary."

Do not resign yourself to war

Throughout these twelve months of war, Pope Francis has always asked not to forget the martyred Ukrainian people, to find ways of dialogue and peace. Gestures, tears, words, appeals, questions to not resign oneself to war and to not remain indifferent. We pray and hope for a quick end to this unnecessary war, and for a return to peace and the ability of people to live normal lives, in peace, safety and Freedom.
