

Happy
Easter Sunday 4th April 2021

Parish Newsletter

Reflection:

Life's dissatisfaction can be deeply personal, perhaps consumed with grief, or disappointed with the trajectory of one's life, experiencing only pain and fragmentation. Or it can be dissolution with the bigger waves of unfolding history. What is happening to the world? To the Church? To my people or my family? The Easter insight and perspective, as we see in the Acts of the Apostles, enables the disciple to recognise God in the disjointed and discordant sequence of life. Now we are those witnesses. (Acts 10:39)

To watch Pope Francis, in an interreligious and ecumenical moment, praying recently for the revival of life, of trust, of community and of faith, among the ruins of Mosul on the banks of the Tigris, from the cradle of God's people, was an Easter moment of our time, in this year as marked on the candle. An image that changed perspective and enabled, for a moment, the world to imagine transformed life, resurrection! He saw and he believed. (Jn 20:8).
