Reflection

Jesus looks at you and me, he asks, who do you say that I am? Who am I for you? This question of faith is still one that is asked of each of us today. Hopefully we meet and encounter Jesus through each other, in the Word of God and through the life of the sacraments. We are also being called and invited by Jesus to have a deep personal relationship with him daily. This does not mean that this is private; just between myself and Jesus; my friendship with Jesus is personal but never private. As a follower of Jesus, I am always connected to something bigger and richer than just myself; the Church – the Body of Christ. Today and over the coming days, take a little time to hear and listen to Jesus asking you personally, 'who do you say that I am?'
