Seeing Your Life Through the Lens of the Gospel:

Luke 11:1-13

When asked how we should pray, Jesus teaches the "Our Father"

Jesus was praying in a certain place, and when he had finished one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, as John taught his followers." He said to them, "When you pray, say: Father, hallowed be your name. Your kingdom come. Give us each day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive everyone indebted to us. And do not bring us to the time of trial." And he said to them, "Suppose one of you has a friend, and you go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves of bread; for a friend of mine has arrived, and I have nothing to set before him.' And he answers from within, 'Do not bother me; the door has already been locked, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot get up and give you anything.' I tell you, even though he will not get up and give him anything because he is his friend, at least because of his persistence he will get up and give him whatever he needs." "So I say to you, Ask, and it will be given you search, and you will find; knock, and the door will be opened for you. For everyone who asks receives, and everyone who searches finds, and for everyone who knocks, the door will be opened. Is there anyone among you who, if your child asks for a fish, will give a snake instead of a fish? Or if the child asks for an egg, will give a scorpion? If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!"

Diocesan Needs Collection

Thanks to all who supported the Monthly Diocesan needs collection. Next month's collection will take place on 10th & 11th August. We thank you for your support.

Scripture Sharing

Wednesday evenings at 7pm in the Presbytery. This is an open invitation, Come and see. The Gospel for the coming Sunday is read as we actively listen for words or phrases that resonate with us. After a time of reflection, we listen to what each has to share. We then deepen our listening with a teaching on the passage to deepen our reflection and open up further sharing followed by prayer.

Novena to St. Anthony

Every Tuesday at the 10am and 5.45pm Mass there will be a novena celebrated in honour of St Anthony.

World Mission Sunday

For our Church family, October is synonymous with mission, with World Mission Sunday falling on October 20th. Pope Francis has announced October 2019 as the Extraordinary Month of Mission (EMM2019)! It will be an extra-special month of prayer and action to help you to rediscover the meaning and importance of mission in our modern world. To help you celebrate, go to World Missions Ireland website www.wmi.ie.

National Day for Priests Knock Shine.
