Rediscover Your Natural Breathing

A 1- day workshop on Thursday, Nov 21, 2024. 10 AM to 4 PM

Limerick Diocesan Centre, St Munchin's College, Corbally, Limerick

So many of life's experiences interfere with our natural breath.

Illnesses, especially covid, injuries, grief, etc., all cause habitual holding as we strive to push through. These chronic holding habits soon limit our ease in breathing and can result in anxiety and a wide range of undesirable conditions.

Join us to discover how to gently release these unnecessary restrictions and regain full ease in breathing.

To reserve you place in the workshop please go to www.EmbodiedLearning.info
